

Hagen Lichtenberg A Wolfgang Petzold (Eds.)

Studying Europe

Challenges and Prospects for European Studies

Nomos Verlagsgesellschaft
Baden-Baden

Table of Contents

Introduction

Part I: The European Curriculum: Concepts for European Studies

Alexandra Angress

The College of Europe - 50 Years Old, 50 Years Young 11

Stefano Bruzzone

A Postgraduate Programme in European Studies - An Initiative of the German Federal Foreign Office 19

Part II: The Challenge of Virtual Mobility: Using Information Technologies in European Studies

Wolfgang Petzold

The Challenge of Virtual Mobility - Using Information Technologies in European Studies 27

Barbara Jancar-Webster

EUROSIM99 as an Instructional Model for Interactive Learning via the Internet and in Face to Face Simulation Exercises 33

Ingrid Cantwell

ELVIL - The European Legislative Virtual Library 41

Freda Carroll

Eurotext: European Union Texts for Student Modules 45

Hans-Peter Baumeister

CEFES - From a Project to a Virtual Faculty in European Studies 53

Luciano Morganti

The Policy of the European Union for the Development of Educational Multimedia 59

Part III: European Studies Networking: Cases Studies

Friedrich Lehmann/Monika Blaschke "Master of European Studies": Introducing a New Postgraduate Programme at the Hochschule Bremen	73
Julia Teschner Broadening and Deepening in Tandem: The Euromasters integrated Postgraduate Experience	83
Krystyna Gawlikowska-Hueckel European Studies at the University of Gdansk	95
Fred W. Scharf International Marketing - A Strategie Approach to Syllabus Development	103
Karl Mårten Barfuß Co-operation in Regional European Studies with Universities in the CEECs	119
Reinhard Flessner The EuroCulture Network - Forays into the Unknown. An Interim report	127
Barbara Hasenmüller/Alexandra Angress Building on Past Experience and Looking at Future Challenges: Basic and New Aspects of the Second Phase of the SOCRATES Programme	133