ECONOMY AND ARCHITECTURE

Edited by Juliet Odgers, Mhairi McVicar and Stephen Kite
CONTENTS

List of illustrations x
Contributors xiii
Acknowledgements xvii
Foreword by David Leatherbarrow xviii

Editors' introduction 1
Juliet Odgers, Mhairi McVicar and Stephen Kite

PART 1
Defining household 9

1 Equalitarianism 13
Simon Sadler

2 The earthly paradise of economie sociale 27
Diana Periton

3 Parker Morris and the economies of the Fordist house 38
Gary A. Boyd

4 Care of commons: exploring questions of care, gifts and reciprocity in making new commons 49
Kim Trogal

5 John Evelyn's villa at Sayes Court: a microcosm of labour and love 59
Juliet Odgers
PART 2
Negotiating value

6 Architectural husbandry
Christine Stevenson

7 Home economics
Flora Samuel

8 Four economies of architecture
Adam Sharr

9 The libidinal economy of architecture: skin, membranes and other surfaces of desire
Chris L. Smith

10 Architectural renewal and poetic persistence: investing in an economy of stories
Lisa Landrum

PART 3
Managing production

11 Scarcity constructs
Jeremy Till

12 Economy of means
Jonathan Sergisoti, Sergison Bates architects LLP

13 An optional extra: valuing architecture at the Brompton Boilers
Mhairi McVicar

14 The architect: a disappearing species in a financialized space?
Silke Otsch

15 The Pan-American Higjiway: informal urbanism in Latin-American border cities
Cristian Suau
PART 4

Politics and economy 187

16 The death and life of PFI urbanism: vagaries of style and politics in British Cities, 2009-present 191
Owen Hatherley

17 A stimulus for education: global economic events and the design of Australian schools 204
Hannah Levi and Cameron Logan

18 Restricted by scarcity, striving for greater bounty: the role of architecture in making Dubai 216
Kevin Mitchell

19 Designing public space in Austerity Britain 226
Suzanne Hall

20 The bricks of Venice: material and craft in John Ruskin's political economy 237
Stephen Kite

List of illustration credits 248
Select bibliography 250
Index 257